

Idaho Falls, Idaho

A bustling city with a small town feel.

One of the jewels on the fertile Snake River Plain, Idaho Falls is ranked among the Top 10 “Hottest Small Cities” by Inc. Magazine.

The city of over 52,000 is big enough to offer a wide variety of entertainment, activity, and 5-star cuisine, but small enough for an easy pace, clean air, and riverside walks. Whatever your area of interest, it's here, either in or just outside of Idaho Falls.

Find out more about this jewel of a city:

- City of Idaho Falls <http://www.idahofallsidaho.gov>
- Visit Idaho Falls www.visitidahofallss.com/exploring

Pocatello, Idaho

A taste of adventure near the comfort of home.

Surrounded on three sides by snow-capped mountains, Pocatello is a small, beautiful city in the heart of eastern Idaho. Whatever the season, you are sure to find something to capture your interest, be it cross-country skiing through the winter wonderland, enjoying live music from one of the outdoor bandshells on a summer night, or anything in between.

Find out more about the heart of eastern Idaho:

- City of Pocatello www.pocatello.us
- Visit Pocatello www.visitpocatello.com

Idaho Falls and Pocatello: Sports & Recreation

The baseball enthusiast in Idaho Falls can enjoy watching the Idaho Falls Chukars (an affiliate of the Kansas City Royals), and those who prefer golf will have their pick of four championship golf courses on which to play.

Pocatello has opportunities of it's own for the sports enthusiast. The city is home to Idaho State University, which hosts all manner of collegiate sporting events, and the Ross Park Swim Complex boasts something for all ages, including a lazy river, water slide, and infant's pool.

Idaho Falls offers an amazing variety of recreational opportunities: sink your hooks into world-class fishing holes, drive alongside bison and bears in Yellowstone National Park and Grand Teton National Park, or discover a new world at Craters of the Moon National Monument. Whatever your outdoor interest, it's all just a stone's throw away from Idaho Falls.

Meanwhile, the unspoiled wilderness around the Pocatello is perfect for cross country skiing and snowmobiling in the winter, or hiking and biking in the summer. The scenic Pontneuf River Greenway that runs through town is popular for jogging and casual strolling.

Arts and Entertainment

The Idaho Falls Symphony

440 N Capital Ave
Idaho Falls, ID 83402

For over sixty years, the Idaho Falls Symphony has provided quality live orchestral music for the community. Established in 1949, it draws musicians from all walks of life, from professional musicians to engineers. Education and outreach are central to the Symphony's role in the community. Their season runs from September to April.

The Warehouse

1009 South 2nd Ave
Pocatello, ID 83201

The Warehouse is home to Pocatello's Westside players, a non-profit, all volunteer community theatre group. Dinner is prepared by a local restaurant for each production so guest can dine and enjoy the show.

The Idaho Zoo at Tautphaus Park

2725 Carnival Way
Idaho Falls, ID 83402

Watch endangered penguins, experience a wallaby or discover the antics of sloth bears. The zoo includes a collection of 325 animals, the largest in Idaho, that both adults and children can enjoy.

Museums of Idaho Falls and Pocatello

The Museum of Idaho

200 N Eastern Ave
Idaho Falls, ID
83402

This museum is the inter-mountain west's premier museum. The museum is dedicated to educating the public in science, humanities, natural culture, and history. It provides a substantial permanent collection of dinosaur specimens, Egyptian artifacts, and life science exhibits. It also draws nationally and internationally acclaimed traveling exhibits.

Idaho Museum of Natural History

921 s 8th Ave
Pocatello, ID 83201

The Idaho Museum of Natural History is home to permanent and special collections of Anthropology Earth Sciences, and Life Sciences. Through virtualization, the museum is helping to pioneer the field of digital collections. They also strive to be an educational resource for children, families, and adults.